NEWSLETTER OF THE DALKEITH NEDLANDS BOWLING CLUB

It's the first birthday of the newsletter. I do hope you all get something out of it. It is meant to be a chatty, light hearted look at our club and an opportunity to get to know our members and the club's activities just a little better. I am always looking for contributions I can use. Winter can be quiet with weather interruptions but playing numbers have been good and we have Marty's nominated pairs/fours coming up next week. The first social event of the year, the Cocktail Party, was enjoyed by a good crowd. Well done girls. The food was great and the entertainment was fun.

QUIZ NIGHT

Wednesday September 15th

Start organising your tables of 8 for a fun night. Now here's a little tip - make sure you have a baby boomer or two on the table as there are lots of questions from the 60's and 70's

Keep an eye out on the notice board for the sheet to go up and names up early this time please.

Yes, it has been a wet year. A very attractive duck has found a new home on B Green. Perhaps we might have a new mascot. The Dalkeith Wood Ducks does sound better than the Silvertails.

ANSWERS TO LAST MONTH'S QUIZ

1. An OA in the club maybe not, but our newest 80 year old Alex Campbell is a recipient of an AM. Any others ?
2. Wendy Ireland and Richard Verco have held pilot licences.
3. Peter Prout has been a shearer.
4. Brian Page coached Dumbleyung FC but not to a premiership.
5. The late Alex Bevan was a well noted authority on meteorites in WA.
6. Sue Harris was a neighbour in Adelaide of the legendary Don Bradman.
7. Macca wore the big V in football along with the black swan on many occasions.
8. Ross McLean MHR represented us in Canberra in a previous life.
9. Peter Wells launched Mark McGowan's political career with a loss to him in a local council election.
10. Aunty Cathy to Tim Minchin.

 There may be more correct answers. Let me know if I missed anyone.

Now here's a little story from a group of our men bowlers who meet regularly for lunch. One of the members (who should remain nameless) is a definite red meat man, maybe seafood but never that' chicken stuff, surprised us all by ordering Buffalo Wings.

When a plateful of chicken wings and chilli sauce arrived he cried foul claiming a mix up and where was his steak ? Not happy.

Do we assume buffaloes fly in Narrogin ?
As for his name , well I think we are all on the right PAGE now.

SPONSORSHIP

Do you realise sponsorship brings in more money to our club than membership fees. If not for our sponsors our membership fees could conceivably be double. So please get behind our sponsors, use them and thank them for their support

We are always looking for new sponsors, from green sponsors right down to vouchers we can use for raffles and prizes. Think of stores, restaurants or services in our area you use regularly who might welcome us as a partner to promote their businesses. Any ideas pass them on to Doug Cross or Lindsay Richardson.
